WHERE TO EAT, STAY & PLAY IN DALLAS

Dallas, you surprise me. As a fellow Austinite of 8 years and counting, I'm pretty proud of our city and our local restaurants. So when I decided to go for a weekend getaway to the big D, I wasn't expecting much. But I was blown away by the quality of restaurants, cuisine, and friendly service. And your fried chicken game is on point, Austin you need to step it up.

I partnered up with KIA Motors to take the 2015 Kia Soul around Austin and for the weekend getaway to Dallas. My knowledge of cars is quite limited but I've loved driving with the Kia Soul! The drive is super smooth, while the car is compact but also spacious inside. The Alien II green color even grew on me, makes it super easy to find it in the parking lot. One of my favorite features was the glowing speakers at night. Feels like a dance party in the car!
