

Customization is Key at Dugg Burger

Customization is key at Dugg Burger. The original Dugg Burger, located in Casa Linda Plaza, is a standout in Lakewood and they recently opened a Dugg Burger in Plano, drawing fans there. Their casual space and laid-back atmosphere make it a great spot for a quick lunch or a dinner.

Dugg Burger offers a casual setting in Lakewood.

Order at the counter and walk through the toppings line to customize your burger.

Dugg Burger's create-your-own options are broad enough to please everyone but not too large to overwhelm when creating your perfect burger. First, you simply pick the number of patties you want and your cheese preference. From there, Dugg Burger scoops out the top of a freshly baked bun to make room for all of your toppings. While your burger is cooking, you go through the line to select your goodies.

Options include typical fresh ingredients with a twist. They offer dressed lettuce (tossed in their house made vinegarett dressing), grape tomatoes and pickles. For sauce options, they have everything from barbecue, mustard, ketchup and their own specialty Dugg sauce. We went with the special sauce of the day - a housemade spicy ranch. The last stop is their specialty cooked items like sauteed mushrooms, fire-roasted jalapenos, caramelized onions, crispy onion strings and hickory-smoked bacon. Choose freely as these delicious topping come at no additional cost, which is quite refreshing. Our favorite part of the Dugg Burger menu is their rotating lucky 13 ingredient. It varies between items like bruschetta, grilled pineapple, hatch chiles, mac n cheese and more.
