

Last week Big 7 Travel's community and our panel of judges named Texas the most Instagrammable state in America, which means that lots more people will be interested in visiting America's second largest state.

One of the first things that most people can agree on is that burgers are one of the greatest foods invented, so it's only right that we shared the 25 best in the Lone Star State. Big 7 Travel released the 50 best burgers in the USA last week; here's where you'll find the very best burgers in Texas...

The judging criteria:

Finalists were selected from across the state of Texas

Votes were cast in a poll of Big 7 readers, across our 1.5million community on social media and by a panel of food experts

Online reviews, previous media coverage and notable blogs were also included in the overall rating

The final list is subjective – if we've missed out on any must-try burger places across Texas, please do let us know!

3. Dugg Burger

There are two important things to know about this burger joint. The first is that they put so many toppings and patty in the middle that they need to hollow out the buns. The second is that their shakes are legendary and you should never leave without ordering one!
